Written Feedback

File and Folder Management
Your performance suggests you need to focus more on the principles of computer management. Check where you lost your marks and spend time practising to cover those gaps. It might be a good idea to ask for assistance in this regard.

Word Processing
You show an understanding of word processing concepts, however, there are gaps. Check where you lost marks and seek assistance to cover those gaps with exercises and practice.

Spreadsheets
You show some understanding of spreadsheet concepts, however, there are gaps. Review key functions and formatting techniques to strengthen your work. Don't be shy to ask for input.

Databases
You've succeeded in demonstrating a basic understanding of database concepts. You will need to build on this foundation to develop confidence in advanced features and operations.

HTML
You've done well in demonstrating a basic understanding of HTML structure and elements. With some more practice of practical exercises, you are bound to improve.
